TO THE READER.

THis Catalogue of Books, Consists of the Library of the late Reverend and Learned Mr. Steph. Charnock, sometime Fellow of New-Colledge in Oxford, and Proctor of the University, a Person so well known for his Constant and Indefatigable Study, and so much fam'd for his accurate Preaching in this City, that I shall not presume to attempt a further Character of him : Since those Excellent Discourses of his, Of Providence, &c. That are now with all speed preparing for publick view ; will sufficiently inform the World of his other great Abilities, and perpetuate his Name to Posterity. However with relation to the present undertaking, I think it not amiss to observe, That he was well skil'd in the Editions of Books, and Curious to Collect what ever was esteemed Choice and Useful in its kind, which appears by the ensuing Catalogue, (and will we doubt not) be Invitation sufficient to all Lovers of Books and Learning, to buy upon this occasion those they want, that (now are, but may not again) be expos'd to Sale this Auctionary Way.

This Auction will begin on Monday the Fourth day of October, 1680. At the Sign of the Lamb an Upholsterers House, directly opposite to the Atlas in Cornhill, punctually at Nine of the Clock in the morning and two in the Afternoon, and there continue dayly untill all the Books be Sold.

The

To the Reader.

The Conditions are these.

I. That he who bids most is the Buyer ; and if any manifest difference shall arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the same Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed a second time.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue, not otherwise expressed (for ought we know) are perfect ; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books so Bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are Sold, where upon payment thereof, the Book or Books for the Month aforesaid will be delivered.

IV. If any Gentlemen desire to satisfy themselves of the Condition or Edition of any of these Books, they may see them at the place aforesaid, for one whole week before the Auction begins.
